Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments:

Mr. Geissler gave a brief explanation of the invention and stated that the cited reference, Hiyama et al, did not teach the limitation of "various types of user terminals", as recited in independent claim 1. The examiner indicated that the second reference, Abecassis, was used for the teaching of this limitation, in a rejection under U.S. C. 103(a). Mr. Geissler also indicated that the cited references did not fully satisfy the "editing" feature as it was meant by claim 1. The examiner indicated that the term "editing" was interpreted as "modifying" the image and/or image data, which is taught by the Hiyama reference (column 12, lines 14-20.) The "Final" status of the previous Office Action is maintained by the examiner.
